

THE DAILY BULLETIN.
THURSDAY EVE., AUGUST 7, 1884.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Publishers and Proprietors,
TO WHOM ADDRESS ALL COMMUNICATIONS

THE whole of one end,
And part of the middle,
Walked up to the rack
And voted for Riddle;
But the opposite end,
Like a wild young colt,
Kicked over the traces
And voted for Holt.

In sending voters to Lexington next time they should be marked C. O. D.

MESSRS. OWENS & BARLEY received yesterday one hundred and seventy-five cases of boots.

MOTHERS.—If you are failing, broken, worn out and nervous, use "Wells' Health Renewer." $1. Druggists.

As the church is being cleaned there will be no prayer meeting at the Baptist Church to-night. Services as usual Sunday.

The Cynthiana and Maysville base ball clubs will play a game at East End Park to-morrow afternoon at half-past two o'clock. The contest will be sharp and interesting.

A DESPATCH was received last night by Mayor January, from Henry L. Stone, which claimed Holt's election by 800 majority. The allowance of salt to be taken with this statement is several barrels.

WE find the following among the camp-meeting notes in the Carlisle Mercury: A Maysville dude changed his clothing four times Saturday and four times Sunday, and it is said he had not opened his third trunk.

New Church Journal.
The Vanceburg Courier says: "Rev. Riley, who purchased the Maysville Republican, contemplates turning it into a religious organ. Rev. Riley belongs to the hard shell Baptists.

"Sissy" Ross, a colored woman, charged with shooting at another, at Washington, last Monday evening, with intent to kill, was tried before Magistrates Downing and held for trial in the Circuit Court. She is confined in the Maysville jail.

DAN. PERRINE thinks Galbraith is harder to beat than any man he ever tackled. The contest was lively, exciting and the result close, though Perrine seems to have gotten out of the woods by a small majority. Galbraith, we are informed, will not contest the election.

As will be seen by a letter from the Auditor, printed elsewhere, the State Board of Equalization has reduced the assessed value of farm lands this county three per cent., increased the value of town and city lots six per cent. and the value of personal property twelve per cent.

The following is from the Clark County Democrat: Hon. J. D. Kehoe is engaged in an active canvass of the Ninth District for Congress. Without being fully acquainted with the merits of the other candidate, we venture to say that the people could do no better than to choose him. If nominated Mr. Kehoe will make such an active and aggressive campaign as will insure the success of his party.

CALE NORTON, a colored sneak thief and desperate character generally at Carlisle, on election day, was the leader of a gang of lawless men who caused a great deal of trouble. On the day following the election he was passing out of a door with a loaded pistol in his hand, and the hammer striking against the side of the door, the weapon was discharged, shooting him through the stomach. He lived about an hour.

THE Lexington Transcript says in referring to the nine Lexington negroes who were sent from this city by enterprising Republicans, to vote at Lexington, on Monday, and were gobbled up on their arrival by equally enterprising Democrats: "The colored delegation from Maysville voted solid. One colored man, sober as a judge, hit the nail squarely on the head when he said, 'The Democrats have always been my friends, and not the Republicans.'"

Camp Meetings.

RUGGLES CAMP, August 5, 1884.
The congregations have been good all day. The morning service was one of unusual power.

At 10:30 a. m., Rev. A. Boring preached an intensely interesting sermon from Mat. 8: 16 and 21, at the conclusion of which Rev. J. R. Eads followed with a stirring exhortation and when the altar was presented a goodly number came forward and three or four were saved.

Mrs. Vonhelz had charge of the afternoon service, and after an earnest exhortation several came to the altar and two or three were saved.

There was a young people's meeting at 7 o'clock p. m., at one of the cottages, the evening services was attended by a large congregation. Rev. J. R. Eads preached a very solemn and impressive discourse from St. Luke, 12, 16, and 21. At the close a number came to the altar and one professed conversion.

The following ministers came this evening, Revs. Marriott, Maltby, C. Foster, Northcott and Oney. Rev. J. W. Fitch, P. E., of the Maysville District of the M. E. Church South, came this morning and will preach at half-past ten a. m. to-morrow.

Although many have gone home cottages are still filled and will be all week. The directors have thrown the gates open until Friday. Thursday next, temperance day, is looked forward to with anticipations of interest.

PARKS' HILL, August 6, 1884.
At 4 o'clock p. m., yesterday, was held an interesting children's meeting conducted by Rev. J. Rand. Good singing and a live talk gladdened many young hearts.

At night Dr. West, of Nashville, Tenn., preached an excellent sermon, clear-cut, practical, earnest, spiritual, from the 1st Epistle of Peter 4: 10. Both saints and sinners received their portion of instruction, admonition and warning. A deep seriousness rested upon the large audience, and we cannot doubt but great and lasting good must flow from this service.

A few timely remarks from Dr. Deems and the services were closed for the evening. The morning dawned us beautifully. At the appointed hour prayer was conducted at the public stand by Rev. T. F. Taliaferro, after which a good camp meeting breakfast and a little promenade about the ground prepared us for the delightful "social" meeting at 9 a. m., which was conducted by Rev. J. Rand, and was the best social service we have enjoyed thus far. It was opened by singing and the reading of the 51st Psalm, this followed by the song, "Just as I Am," and prayer by the leader.

The testimonies were clear, earnest and pathetic. These were interspersed with appropriate verses of songs. Meeting closed with the benediction.

When the bell sounded for morning preaching it was inspiring to see the moving multitude entering the public stand, where, after some singing by Prof. Stevens and his choir, and participated in by the congregation, a scripture lesson and a fervent, heart-touching prayer by Dr. Deems opened the way for one of the grandest treats of the season. Dr. Deems read for his text 2nd Kings 6: 17. "And Elisha prayed, and said, Lord, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lord opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw; and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha."

The following is a brief outline of the sermon: "An old prophet and his young servant—The weak fears of the young man—Strong faith of the prophet—Elisha saw the regiments of God; the servant those of men—The prophetic sight as distinct from clairvoyance, 1st, not a usual physical or psychical power but special gift of God. 2nd, not for general purposes, but special purposes; 3rd not in the power of the prophet, not ever available—All men have a spiritual capability of seeing quite distinct from the bodily. This may be developed variously; 1st, it may come with ecstasy in which wonderful things may be seen; 2nd, it may be developed into the visions of faith etc. A better and profounder effect is seldom produced by a single pulpit effort. As the preacher proceeded the whole encampment seemed to be encompassed and thronged with celestial soldiery. The fiery horses of heaven's army were prancing for the mighty conflict, while angel allies in countless numbers hovered silent over and around the people of God. Heaven and earth were brought in close proximity to each other, grosser physical sight gave way to spiritual vision, and many hearts rejoiced in a conscious heavenward impetus.

COUNTY POINTS.

MAY-LICK.
The coming convention to appoint delegates in this place to meet in Mayville, looking in the interest of the many candidates for Congress, is waxing warm. A number daily in the saddle working for their favorites. Hon. J. D. Kehoe will carry this precinct largely next Saturday.

Winter wraps are quite comfortable these August mornings.

The Spider Not What He is Cracked Up to Be.
Louisville Courier-Journal.

A good deal of nonsense is written about the sagacity of the spider. The spider is not sagacious. At night it will crawl into the tea-kettle, make its web just above the spout-hole and wait for flies. In the morning, when the kettle is to get hot, it loses its presence of mind, runs to the outside of the kettle, then down to the stove and is astonished to find that the stove is still hotter than the kettle. Unless a friendly hand brushes it off it perishes miserably.

A Business That is Always First-Class.
New York Sun.

A merchant about Fourteenth street when asked a few days ago how he had stood the recent panic, said: "Splendidly, I am a manufacturer of babies' caps, and I regard it as the most stable business in the country. Babies are coming into the world all the time and every mother will stint herself before she denies her infant a cap. No panics interfere with my business."

The Coal Trade.
Burlington Free Press.

A coal dealer asked some law students what legal authority was the favorite of his trade. One answered: "Coke." "Right," said the dealer. Another suggested: "Blackstone." "Good, too!" said the questioner. Then a little man piped out: "Littleton." Whereupon the coal dealer sat down.

Instantly Relieved.
Mrs. Ann Lacour, of New Orleans, La., writes: "I have a son who has been sick for two years; he has been attended by our leading physicians, but all to no purpose. This morning he had his usual spell of coughing, and was so greatly prostrated in consequence, that death seemed imminent. We had in the house a bottle of Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs, purchased by my husband, who noticed your advertisement. We administered it and he was instantly relieved."

The Queens of Society.
are among the staunchest advocates of beautifying Sozodont, which communicates to the teeth the glistening whiteness of snow, arrests their decay, renders spongy and ulcerated gums healthy, and breath made offensive by defective teeth as sweet as honey suckle. Ladies, ye were made to captivate, make your conquest sure and swift, your empire over made hearts lasting by its sovereign aid. The fashionable world declares there is nothing like it.

This Idea of Going West to Colorado or New Mexico, for pure air to relieve consumption, is all a mistake. Any reasonable man would use Dr. Bosank's cough and lung syrup for consumption in all its first stage. It never fails to give relief in all cases of cough, colds, bronchitis, pains in the chest and all affections primary to consumption. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Sold by George T. Wood.
